

Illusions

Music & Lyrics | George Gad

Verse 1

This year has gone by, but I'll tell you
Little has changed and got better
But the fault is still mine
All the days that I cried
I should have at least tried

Verse 2

Fighting for weekends with tons of illusions
Taking decisions with mixed up conclusions
Sands are running out
I think I'm trembling again

Verse 3

Brain disorder
I'm crumbling to dust
Things I dreamed of are not gonna last
I don't know you
You don't know me
How could you ever love me?
